La guerra civil española y las mujeres en el cine

A day school to be held at Rewley House,
1 Wellington Square,
Oxford

This day school will explore the representation of the Spanish Civil War in film from a women's perspective. We will watch several clips from Spanish films related to the War, analyse them and discuss them. By the end of the course, through this less mainstream perspective, we will have new insights into the representation of war and of national identity.

The lectures and the film clips will be in Spanish.
